On Saturday, September 22, 2018, at Vanna Church the VC family gathered to say to “Good-bye” to a dear friend and a faithful follower of Jesus Christ. We sang, followed in prayer, listened to Tina Hart sing and was encouraged with the great truths from Gods Word about life, death and our eternal home. We gathered to show our respect and our love to Virginia Dickerson. Virginia was 81 years old. She loved her German Shepherd dogs. She loved the VC children. She loved her VC church family and she loved our Lord.

Rev. Ed Dickens, former pastor of VC, officiated Virginia’s funeral. In his remarks he read of the multitude that makes up the family of God who has preceded us to our heavenly home. Rev. Dickerson comforted us with the glorious reminder that Virginia is not in that old, sickly and confining body. But like a bird released from the bird cage, she has left her body, this old broken world and is now safely and forever at home with our Lord and that great sea of people, called the family of God.

Virginia in the back row in white surrounded by the VC children and young people whom she loved and they loved her. The youth purchased her last German Shepherd for her (shown in the picture).

God intends for us to be born into a family, raised in a family, loved and cared for in a family. He also intends for us to be spiritually born again into his family with his blood running in our spiritual veins and his Spirit uniting our hearts together as his loving family. He also intends for us to leave this world and be joined together with a loving family in heaven. He does not intend for us to be alone.

Vanna Church is a family. Vanna Church is not the building. It is a loving family made up of individuals with all kinds of backgrounds, different interests, different ages and different talents and gifts.

You are made to be in a family; to develop meaningful relationships. It is where we grow up, grow together and where we prepare for heaven. Hell is a place where there is no family. People who are at home with their church family will be at home in heaven.

Welcome home. Welcome to VC, your church family.
